SCENE 4

OUTSIDE THE GAS STATION

(NATALIE is wiping her hands, having just finished looking at CHAD'S motorcycle.)

NATALIE

So you said she was makin' what kind of sound?

CHAD

Jiggily-wiggily. Any hope you can fix her soon? Took the last fella 'bout four days to get her back on the road --

NATALIE

Oh, I can fix any bike in an hour.

CHAD

Really? How'd you learn to do that?

NATALIE

I've always loved motorbikes. And as a kid I liked to spend time in my dad's garage, so --

CHAD

Wow, a gal who's good with a wrench.

NATALIE

Is that something you find attractive?

CHAD

Sure, little darlin'--

(NATALIE begins to giggle, a little too much. Then CHAD goofy giggles.)

NATALIE giggles more, but CHAD doesn't stop. She stops.)

NATALIE

(Changing the subject) Hey Chad, that jukebox, it really was broken. But then you touched it and ...

CHAD

Yeah, every since I was a babe, seems like I get this special gift, this music inside me.
